Plaintiff alleges that defendants used excessive force in restraining him and that such force was in violation of his Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights. Plaintiff has submitted the affidavits of several prisoners who allegedly saw the incident. After considering the factors discussed above, plaintiff's legal theory, and plaintiff's filings to date, the Court finds that the facts and legal issues involved are not so complicated that the appointment of counsel is warranted at this time

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel is DENIED without prejudice.

Dated this 24th day of October, 2014.
